

Allowing one company to own both a TV station and newspaper will result in less news for the public, not more. There is nothing patriotic about serving the needs of big business to the detriment of the American people. Please listen to the majority of our citizens who don't want to see media more concentrated than it already is.